AN ACT

To repeal section 170.015, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to education courses regarding human sexuality and sexually transmitted diseases.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 170.015, RSMo, is repealed and one new section 2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 170.015, to read as follows:

170.015. 1. Any course materials and instruction relating to human 2 sexuality and sexually transmitted diseases shall be medically and factually 3 accurate and shall:

4 (1) Present abstinence from sexual activity as the preferred choice of 5 behavior in relation to all sexual activity for unmarried pupils because it is the 6 only method that is one hundred percent effective in preventing pregnancy, 7 sexually transmitted diseases and the emotional trauma associated with 8 adolescent sexual activity, and advise students that teenage sexual activity places 9 them at a higher risk of dropping out of school because of the consequences of 10 sexually transmitted diseases and unplanned pregnancy;

11 (2) Stress that sexually transmitted diseases are serious, possible, health 12 hazards of sexual activity. Pupils shall be provided with the latest medical 13 information regarding exposure to human immunodeficiency virus, acquired 14 immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS), human papilloma virus, hepatitis and other 15 sexually transmitted diseases;

16 (3) Present students with the latest medically factual information 17 regarding both the possible side effects and health benefits of all forms of 18 contraception, including the success and failure rates for the prevention of

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

19 pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases; [or shall present students with 20 information on contraceptives and pregnancy in a manner consistent with the 21 provisions of the federal abstinence education law, 42 U.S.C. Section 710;]

22 (4) Include a discussion of the possible emotional and psychological 23 consequences of preadolescent and adolescent sexual activity and the 24 consequences of adolescent pregnancy, as well as the advantages of adoption, 25 including the adoption of special needs children, and the processes involved in 26 making an adoption plan;

27 (5) Teach skills of conflict management, personal responsibility and 28 positive self-esteem through discussion and role-playing at appropriate grade 29 levels to emphasize that the pupil has the power to control personal 30 behavior. Pupils shall be encouraged to base their actions on reasoning, 31 self-discipline, sense of responsibility, self-control, and ethical considerations, 32 such as respect for one's self and others. Pupils shall be taught not to make 33 unwanted physical and verbal sexual advances or otherwise exploit another 34 person. Pupils shall be taught to resist unwanted sexual advances and other 35 negative peer pressure;

36 (6) Advise pupils of the laws pertaining to their financial responsibility 37 to children born in and out of wedlock and advise pupils of the provisions of 38 chapter 566, RSMo, pertaining to statutory rape.

39 2. Policies concerning referrals and parental notification regarding 40 contraception shall be determined by local school boards or charter schools, 41 consistent with the provisions of section 167.611, RSMo.

42 3. A school district or charter school which provides human sexuality 43 instruction may separate students according to gender for instructional purposes.

44 4. The board of a school district or charter school shall determine the 45 specific content of the district's or school's instruction in human sexuality, in 46 accordance with subsections 1 to 3 of this section, and shall ensure that all 47 instruction in human sexuality is appropriate to the age of the students receiving 48 such instruction.

49 5. A school district or charter school shall notify the parent or legal 50 guardian of each student enrolled in the district or school of:

51 (1) The basic content of the district's or school's human sexuality 52 instruction to be provided to the student; and

53 (2) The parent's right to remove the student from any part of the district's 54 or school's human sexuality instruction.

55           6. A school district or charter school shall make all curriculum materials 56 used in the district's or school's human sexuality instruction available for public 57 inspection pursuant to chapter 610, RSMo, prior to the use of such materials in 58 actual instruction.

59           [7. No school district or charter school, or its personnel or agents, shall 60 provide abortion services, or permit a person or entity to offer, sponsor, or furnish 61 in any manner any course materials or instruction relating to human sexuality 62 or sexually transmitted diseases to its students if such person or entity is a 63 provider of abortion services.

64           8. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

65           (1) "Abortion", the same meaning as such term is defined in section 66 188.015, RSMo;

67           (2) "Abortion services":

68           (a) Performing, inducing, or assisting in the performance or inducing of 69 an abortion which is not necessary to save the life of the mother;

70           (b) Encouraging a patient to have an abortion or referring a patient for 71 an abortion, which is not necessary to save the life of the mother; or

72           (c) Developing or dispensing drugs, chemicals, or devices intended to be 73 used to induce an abortion which is not necessary to save the life of the mother.]
